No flag but the Old Flag—the Red White and Blue
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true
Arise and defend it! you sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

Mr Everett s Letter on Factious Opposition.

The following letter, written by one of the most accomplished statesmen and sterling patriots in the nation, to the Mass Convention at Springfield, Ill , is especially commended to the attention of those who are not disposed to approve every act of the Administration, and yet are unwilling to be classed with treasonable political managers, who seem to expect to build up a Democratic party upon the alleged mistakes or errors of those who administer the Government It also has a sensible suggestion to patriotic men in office, the heeding of which could do no possible harm and might effect great public good So we ask every one to read the letter, if there is anything in it to induce any of us to be more faithful, candid, and earnest in our labors for the country, its publication will prove a blessing

BOSTON Aug 21 1863

MY DEAR SIR—I received a few days ago your letter of the 12th inviting me to attend the great mass meeting of "the unconditional Union men of the State of Illinois," to be held on the 3d September at Springfield It will not be in my power to attend the meeting but its objects, as explained by you, have my cordial sympathy

The elections soon to be held, will be of more than usual importance They will throw light upon the great question, how far it is possible for a free government, constituted in its legislative and executive branches by popular choice to prosecute with vigor a war of considerable duration and one which entails heavy burdens on the community

As representative government is mainly carried on by party organization, the great interests of the country, both in peace and war are too apt to become the arena, in which the opposite parties strive for the mastery Questions in themselves of second ary importance to the general welfare are often contested with vehemence and passion and that by men of ability and patriotism, working themselves up to the belief that they are contending for matters of vital importance Within my experience, little politics of the country have successively turned upon four or five questions regarded at the time as of the greatest moment, but now utterly obsolete and forgotten

These unprofitable contests while they last, are the source of great embarrassment to the administration of the General Government for the time being, which finds itself thwarted in all its measures, however patriotic and beneficial their tendency, by indiscriminate opposition, aiming only at an unconscionable triumph This is a very serious evil even in time of peace greatly enhancing the difficulties and burdens of public life, and highly detrimental to the public interests.

In time of war, the evil becomes one of tremendous magnitude The questions that then present themselves are naturally more important than ordinary political issues in time of peace, while every blow struck at the measures of the Government, though designed only to effect a change of Administration, really affords aid and comfort to the enemy This will be the case when the opposition to governmental measures is sincerely dictated by honest difference of opinion But, it will even be the case when the opposition is directed against measures palpably mistaken, either on grounds of principle or policy. No Administration is free from error, and if party spirit is allowed to prevail, its errors will be severely criticised, usually exaggerated, and often fiercely denounced, till the attention of the country, instead of being fixed on the great and main questions on which all good patriots are agreed, is turned to side issues of minor and often factitious importance

In this way the administration of the government is weakened and embarrassed, and the vigorous prosecution of the war, which every patriotic citizen admits to be the paramount object, is in some degree paralyzed

I have doubted the policy of some measures of the administration, and have strongly disapproved others, but regarding the persons in power for the time being as the constitutional agents of the people for carrying on the government—considering the war which has been forced upon us by the unambitious demagogues of the South as a question of national life or death—that to have the doctrine of secession established at the mouth of the rebel cannon, is simply to consign the country to a future of eternal border war, and to lay its dishonored fragments at the feet of foreign powers,—I cannot but think it unpatriotic to attempt, for the sake of a party triumph, to make political capital out of the difficulties, or if you please, the errors, unavoidably incident to the conduct of a war of such gigantic dimensions.

It is a pretty safe test, in cases of this kind to ask how the views and measures of a party are regarded by the common enemy. Applying this test in the present case, nothing is more certain than that the triumph at the approaching elections of any party, organized and operating for the prostration of the Administration, would be regarded with an mingled satisfaction by the leaders of the rebellion and their sympathizers abroad Indeed their last hope is in our divisions.

Candor requires me to add, that if it is the duty of the good citizen to abstain from factious opposition, it is, in time of war, not less the duty of an administration, as well in civil as in military and naval affairs, to assume a position wholly independent of party I am afraid it is impossible, in time of peace, to carry on representative government except on a party basis. During the existence of war, and especially of a war which tasks to the utmost the energies and resources of the country, party support in proportion as it is relied upon, is an element not of strength, but of weakness

If all good men and good patriots in the loyal States, whether in or out of office—sacrificing when necessary a little of the pride of personal feeling and of party association—would cordially unite for the attainment of the objects, which they all approve viz the vigorous prosecution and successful termination of the war, the next New Year s Day would witness the prostration of the rebellion and its leaders, the return of peace, and the restoration of the Union

With the best wishes that the meeting at Springfield may promote these great ends I remain dear sir, very respectfully, your friend and fellow citizen

(Signed) EDWARD EVERETT

To James C Conkling, esq

GROUNDED —The steamer E D Baker, while on her way hence to Oregon City, day before yesterday, got aground on the Clackamas Rapids, and was unable to get off with out discharging a portion of her freight. The steamer Shedaddle went to her relief, and lightened her so that she came off the same evening

OREGON TOBACCO —Mr William T Templeton, of Brownsville Linn county, has left at this office a specimen of his crop of tobacco, which is pronounced a superior article. His crop of ten acres will yield from 600 to 800 pounds per acre.

Eastern News

NEW YORK Oct 11th —The Herald's dispatch from the Army of the Potomac of the 10th says that Lee has withdrawn from our front, supposed to have gone to the defenses of Richmond and is sending a portion of his army to reinforce Bragg The weather is fine and the roads are in good order

The Mercury's Washington despatch says that the rebel retreat from the Rapidan has probably been going on for several days, though the main front was not withdrawn till Saturday All their artillery have been removed

The Herald's New Orleans correspondence has the following part culars of an engagement near Atchafalaya Owing to the illness of Gen Herron, that officer received leave of absence and Major Gen Dana was appointed to the command The change occurred about the 2d As the enemy was found to be in great strength and in good position on the opposite side of the Atchafalaya it was deemed advisable to throw up embankments While the main portion of the troops were fortifying the levee, Col Leck, of the 20th Iowa, was ordered to proceed some 4 or 5 miles in advance He was accompanied by portions of the 19th Iowa and 26th Indiana, and 150 cavalry Early on Wednesday morning the whole force of the enemy, consisting of Morton's, Green's and Major's brigades, succeeded quietly in crossing the river, passing between our main body and Col Leck, who was completely outflanked and cut off before the movement was discovered. Col Leck drew up in line.

The Times's special despatch from Washington says that a letter from an officer with Gen Steel's Arkansas expedition, dated Little Rock, Sept 30, states that deserters from Price's army are coming to our lines by hundreds, and enlisting in our army Guerrillas still continues operations, but with diminished success Several gangs have already thrown down their arms and resumed peaceful pursuits These people admit that Arkansas as well as the whole trans Mississippi country is forever lost to the Southern Confederacy, and probably the rebels will abandon the State altogether, and make a last stand in Texas. Cotton burning in the State has almost entirely ceased The planters are beginning to bring it in in small quantities A great deal is still in the hands of planters in the Northern part of the State

WASHINGTON, Oct 10 —An immense number of sick and disabled soldiers arrived at the hospitals here to night The Army of the Potomac has been thoroughly inspected, and every man unfit for active duty has been sent back. All the officers fit for duty have been ordered to the front, thereby relieving our hotels to a very considerable extent.

MEMPHIS, Oct 9.—A Little Rock, Ark , letter of Oct 2d, says that it is rumored that Kirby Smith, with a heavy force, has joined Price and the combined forces are marching upon that place from Arkadelphia

WASHINGTON, Oct 12 —Intelligence of a reliable nature did not reach Washington till Saturday night, 10th, that the rebels had abandoned the line of the Rapidan and retreated in a southward direction. On the fact being made known at Gen Meade's head quarters on Saturday morning, Buford's cavalry were sent across the Rapidan The evacuation of the south bank had been complete On proceeding inland Buford came upon a portion of Stuart's cavalry, who were evidently covering the retreat of the rebel infantry A considerable skirmish ensued but did not result in our ascertaining whether the rebels had fallen back on Gordonsville, or whether they were attempting a flank movement to get between our army and Washington, in a manner similar to Stonewall Jackson's movement on General Pope over the same ground The prevailing impression seems to be that the rebels have gone to Gordonsville and Richmond, where sufficient garrisons may be left, and the remainder of Lee s army sent to reinforce Bragg and Beauregard. If, on the contrary, the enemy are attempting a flank movement, our forces will be prepared for it. Col Porter, Commissary int General Meade's headquarters came up to-night He reports that the rebel evacuation of the line of the Rapidan is complete and has been very rapidly made

NEW YORK, Oct 12th —The Washington correspondent of the Commercial Advertiser, under date of Oct 11th, says The city was somewhat startled this morning by authentic news from the Rapidan that the rebel army had abandoned its late position on the south bank of that river, and that our cavalry had already encountered one of its retreating columns This intelligence was rendered more exciting by a wide spread rumor, founded merely on the suspicion, doubtless, that a retrograde movement simply mean a resumption of the offensive by a flank movement to the north bend of the Rappahannock, placing the rebel army between Meade and Washington, in the same manner in which Stonewall Jackson flanked Pope If this was the rebel plans the enemy have been fairly thwarted Persons who arrived from the army this morning seem to agree in the impression that the retreat is to draw the rebel army closer to the railroad at Gordonsville, where they have an extensive depot of supplies, where a force will probably be left, and the remainder of the army be sent nearer to the defenses of Richmond. All the military men concur in the belief that the rebels do not intend any campaign in Virginia this Autumn, but, as the rebels have made the first movement, the sequel will soon be had

As anticipated, Schofield retains his command in Missouri, Kansas, however, is detached from it, while certain military arrangements have been made that will restore it is hoped, the peace and order of the State, so much in danger of interruption.

The following is an extract from a letter to the Boston Herald, from the fleet off Charleston, dated Oct 3d Last evening Gen Gilmore sent one of his Greek fire shells into Charleston, which fired some buildings The fire burned for over two hours There will be warm work here before this reaches you, if nothing interferes in the meantime.

The Baltimore American's correspondence dated Charleston Harbor, Oct 5th, says There are indications now that the present inactivity will not be of many days continuance Gilmore has forced his works forward with remarkable rapidity, considering their magnitude and the natural and artificial obstructions The sappers have worked hard nearly every night on the island, nearly every regiment taking its turn in the trenches for fatigue duty The navy, also, is preparing for a renewal Within the last twenty four hours there have been important arrivals here of guns for the removal of the obstructions, which we may soon hope to see successfully applied Five monitors are here

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct 10 —The steamer Caucasian, from Pensacola, Key West, and Charleston Bar, has arrived She reports that there was to be a combined army and navy attack on Charleston, Oct 12 The yellow fever was very prevalent at Pensacola

TERRE HAUTE, Ind , Oct 10 —The draw of a bridge over the Wabash gave way to day precipitating several persons and a drove of cattle into the river Eight persons are known to have been drowned

ST LOUIS, Oct 10 —A small party of Shelby's rebels came within a few miles of California, 25 miles west of Jefferson City, this morning, since which time nothing has been heard of them The Superintendent of the Pacific Railroad, who has arrived at California from Sedalia, reports that the rebels burned the depots, and destroyed the Syracuse and Aberville water tanks between these points and Jefferson City The despatches say Shelby burned the towns of Cole Camp, Benton county, and Florence, Morgan county, on his way from Warsaw to the Pacific Railroad Our men are supposed to be in his rear Special Jotten will be at California tonight

NASHVILLE Oct 11 —The fight reported yesterday occurred at Farmington, not Franklin Wilder's Union brigade was engaged and one regiment of mounted infantry, and the Second Kentucky Cavalry Wilder overtook Wheeler s forces on Thursday night, October 8th, near Farmington The rebels lost heavily in killed and wounded We captured 500 prisoners and a battery The Union loss was 25 killed and 15 wounded Among the killed was Colonel Monroe, of the 123d Illinois regiment

The first train for Bridgeport, Alabama, since the rebel raid, left this morning

A part of Wheeler's cavalry burned a bridge at Curran s Station four miles below Decherd, on Friday night, October 9th It will be restored by Monday. There are rumors that the rebels attempted to destroy the tunnel at Raccoon Mountain, but were driven off by the Union forces, after destroying a part of the track in the tunnel

McMinnville is again in our possession Nearly 400 rebels were taken prisoners They arrived to-day. More are expected to morrow. All quiet in front to day

NEW YORK, Oct 13 —A special dispatch to the Tribune, dated Knoxville, Oct 11, says Burnside advanced toward Greenville (east of Knoxville) on Thursday Oct 8 He over took the rebel forces under Jackson and Williams, on the 10th at Blue Springs The rebels occupied a strong position and numbered at least 6 000 Our cavalry held the advance till 3 o'clock p m when the First division charged them several times The firing was sharp and destructive to our men The rebels used only one battery They were driven from the field at sundown, but the darkness rendered pursuit impossible The rebels are now retreating on the Greenville road We lost 60 killed and wounded

KNOXVILLE, Oct 11 —Our cavalry are falling back from Calhoun, on the Hiwassee, to Sweetwater, Monroe county, on the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad The rebels occupied Athens, 20 miles south of Sweetwater, last evening. Their force is estimated at 8 mounted regiments Our scouts report that more rebels are crossing the Hiwassee to day A scouting party from Wolford's cavalry command was captured to-day

ST LOUIS, Oct 12.—Shelby and Coffee's raiders left the Pacific Railroad Oct 10, and moved north. They reached Boonville yesterday morning. They burned no railroad property at Tipton, as previously reported, but plundered the town of a large quantity of goods, and robbed the citizens of a considerable amount The citizens of Warsaw, Greenfield and other towns through which the rebels passed suffered in like manner. Federal troops from several districts are closing in on them, and although our forces consist principally of infantry, the military authorities feel confident of capturing them — Artillery has been sent up the river from Jefferson City. A fight was expected at Boonville to day, but it is probable that the rebels will retreat to ward Lexington.

WASHINGTON, Oct 12th —The Republican says A dispatch was received by the Government to day from Rosecrans All his communications were complete The raiders were dispersed, and the enemy in front is inactive The troops are in good physical condition and fine spirits.

Gold is accumulating rapidly in the treasury, and will be kept there until specie payments shall be resumed to be used for the payment of interest on the public debt.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13th —The following relative to Rosecrans' army appears under a Washington date Things are unchanged with the exception that the enemy have removed their artillery from Lookout Mountain, where they had about ten pieces in position They appear to have somewhat withdrawn their forces It is supposed they will concentrate their artillery on Mission Ridge Some of the enemy's pieces are heavy, and all seem to carry well They hold both Lookout Mountain and Mission Ridge, from which they threw shell on the 4th and 5th On the latter day a hundred and fifty shells were thrown They, however, inflicted no damage beyond wounding three men and killing one horse We have lines of intrenchments and extensive earthworks The plan of the enemy appears to be not to make an attack in front, but to compel us to abandon Chattanooga by simply holding us in our present position, with their army in front appearing us with their artillery, and by breaking our line of communication by cavalry raids in the rear

A general order has been issued announcing General Reynolds as Chief of Staff, in place of Gen Garfield, who leaves his position to assume his seat in Congress All the divisions are to be consolidated into six, to form the Fourteenth and Fourth Corps, with Generals G H Thomas and Gordon Granger as commanders The three divisions under Thomas will be commanded, respectively, by Generals Baird, Davis and Palmer General Brannan will be Chief of Artillery General Rosecrans officially denies having brought any charges against Generals McCook and Crittenden It is generally believed that these officers will show a much better record than reports in regard to them warrant. With the assistance of the reinforcements that have already arrived, movements will soon be made which, it is hoped, will drive the enemy from the front. The army is well supplied with everything but clothing and blankets. All the wounded able to bear removal have been sent North The casualties in the late battles are not less than fifteen thousand

On Thursday, Oct 8th, the rebels, from the opposite side of the river, fired into our wagon and ambulance trains which were passing over the valley road, wounding two men and killing and wounding several mules They seem determined to embarrassing our transportation in every possible way

The force under Wheeler, after burning a portion of Shelbyville, was attacked by Col Croxton not far from that place on Wednesday, Oct 7th We killed 120 and took 300 prisoners and three pieces of artillery Our troops pursued the enemy in the direction of Fayetteville, where they were again overtaken and 300 more prisoners captured At last accounts the rebels were making their way into the interior, closely pursued by our cavalry, which is regarded as sufficient to take care of them

The rebel Rodley has crossed the Tennessee with 1 000 men He passed through Larkinsville, on the Memphis and Charleston road, on Thursday, October 8th and made off in the direction of Winchester On Friday night, October 9th, they drove in our pickets at the tunnel this side of Cowan Not great damage was done Gen Hooker sent a force in pursuit to that point, but the rebels did not venture attack

There seems to be good reasons for believing that the rebel left wing among themselves in Monday Oct 5th in which 500 or 600 were killed and wounded Deserters confirm the statement, but differ as to the cause and the force engaged One version is that the Georgia troops refused to cross the Chickamauga, and a dispatch was sent down to command them Another story is that the Tennessee troops refused to obey orders and Longstreet forces were sent against them The line of battle and the fighting could be distinctly seen from the mountain tops Heavy cannonading on the 5th

The steamer Constitution from Hilton Head Oct 9th reports that the rebels in the night of the 6th sent a torpedo boat loaded with a raft from Charleston to the Ironsides All Monitors which exploded under her bows defeating the attempt by striking the raft, but killing Engineer Howard wounding a seaman and doing considerable damage The Ironsides remained off Maitrie The Monitors were doing picket duty off Sumter Gilmore was still erecting batteries on Morris Island

WASHINGTON, Oct 13 —The Washington Republican of last evening has the following Information from the front this morning says Gen Meade's army has fallen back to this place (Rappahannock) and followed up Lee's army, which is in great force about a mile from the south side The enemy moved up the valley on the southern bank of Rappahannock Our cavalry, under Buford, crossed at Germania Ford, and held possession of the earthworks evacuated by them When our forces were all across, the enemy came against Buford in great force and drove him across the river and forced him back to Rappahannock Station Kilpatrick's force of cavalry and artillery, while making a reconnoissance in the rear of Madison Court House was cut off yesterday afternoon, on the road to Culpepper, by a portion of Ewell's corps, which formed across the only road by which he could retreat Kilpatrick was compelled to change his direction. A portion of the cavalry cut its way through under a concentrated fire such as has hardly ever been experienced by our troops during the war. Meade displayed good generalship in bringing his army back to the line of the Rappahannock When the enemy moved up the valley Meade made a feint of following him in order to attack him in the rear, passing his troops at Raccoon Ford Thus drew back Lee's army, so that the intended flanking movement was frustrated Meade brought every wagon and all his stores with him

NEW YORK, Oct 13.—The Times special despatch says Later intelligence from the front says our forces evacuated Culpepper, and such stores as could not be conveniently removed were burned Their whole army, however, was trifling It is reported that the whole rebel army has crossed the Rapidan and further, that Gen Meade has fallen back to the north bank of the Rappahannock Prisoners captured on Saturday 10th inst, state that Longstreet's corps has returned from the southwest This is now considered doubtful The rebels commenced to cross the Rapidan on Thursday morning, 8th inst, in the direction of Madison Court House, with the evident intention of turning Meade's right wing Heavy cavalry reinforcements have been sent to the front It is reported that the rebel cavalry hold the gaps in Bull Run mountains The large cavalry force sent from here yesterday, however, will speedily dislodge them The rebel force holding the gaps is supposed to be White's and Mosby's men

The Times' Morris Island correspondent, under date of Oct. 7th, states that so much damage was done to the Ironsides, by the rebel torpedo that it is seriously contemplated sending her North for repairs Our naval picket boats were attacked at the same time, and it was thought the rebels would soon make a demonstration on our fleet with their rams, as three of our Monitors were absent Two double ender rams for harbor service have arrived

ST LOUIS Oct 13 —A Leavenworth special dispatch says Gen Blunt scours the country east and south of Fort Blair, and satisfied himself that the enemy had gone south He followed them to a point 10 miles south of Fort Gibson Blunt is now returning to Fort Scott Major Hennings has arrived from Baxter Springs with the body of Major Curtis Of 80 prisoners taken by the rebels, 30 were murdered after being captured

CAIRO Oct 13.—We have reports from below to the effect that Richardson has been conquered at New Albany, on the Tallahatchie but has fallen back towards Pontotoc, Miss. He is reported to have 1 800 men and eight pieces of artillery

On the 8th, Browning was conscripting on the Hatchie, north of Bolivar, with bloodhounds Street was plundering citizens in the counties along the Mobile and Ohio Railroad—taking every thing valuable burning the houses and killing the men who refused to be conscripted A large cotton crop is growing in that region There is little prospect of its being gathered

From Little Rock, we learn that all was quiet An attack from Kirby Smith and Price was not expected Their force was weakened by desertion Our cavalry had penetrated 30 miles into the enemy's country A considerable number of the people of Arkansas are enlisting in the Union army

PHILADELPHIA, Oct 13 —Scattering returns from different portions of the State show Union gains, except in Schuylkill Nor thampton and Bucks counties, in which Woodward gains considerable

Lancaster county is reported to give 6,000, and Alleghany county 5,000 for Curtin Forney claims this city, by 9,000 for Curtin, and from the returns received this far, figures up 10 000 gain for Curtin The Union men claim the State by 50,000 majority

INDIANAPOLIS Oct 13 —The election so far as heard from in this State, for county officers indicate Union gains This city gives a Union majority of 2 100—a gain of 600. In every county and precinct heard from, the gains are in proportion

CLEVELAND, O October 13.—Dayton City (Vallandigham's home) gives Brough 267 majority—a gain of 190

The following is the soldiers' votes as far as received 28th regiment—Vallandigham, none 13th—Brough, 450 Vallandigham, none Col. White's brigade—Brough 1,260 Vallandigham, 8 Gilbert's brigade—Brough 1,200, Vallandigham, 22 104th regiment —Brough, 460, Vallandigham, 4

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to October 15.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15 —We have dates to the 14th On that day the First Maine regiment encountered a large force of the enemy just beyond Mitchellsville and was surrounded but gallantly cut their way out, and crossed the river at Witherspoon Ford, above Sulphur Springs

On Monday, the enemy advanced on the Fourth and Thirteenth Pennsylvania which were with cavalry and artillery, slowly driving the cavalry supports in their front Our cavalry seeing they were being overpowered fell back slowly, contesting the ground in a large forest on this side of Jeffersonton where Gregg, who had these regiments in reserve, dismounted a portion of his men and sent them out as skirmishers After stubbornly fighting for two hours, they were ordered to fall back slowly, and as they were doing so a heavy infantry force of the enemy was dispatched on each flank, and at the same time three regiments having made a wide detour and attacked them in the rear At this time the Tenth New York was sent to support Gregg and Reid's battery of Second New Hampshire, but owing to the short range of guns no serious damage was inflicted on the enemy The Fourth and Thirteenth Pennsylvania regiments were now pressed severely in front, and our centre was broken, at the same time we were attacked on each flank and rear Our men bravely cut their way through and escaped across the river with heavy loss The loss of the Second New Hampshire will amount to 450 killed, wounded and missing The Fourth and Thirteenth Pennsylvania suffered the most severely

All surplus baggage of the Army of the Potomac has been removed to the rear, and the army is stripping for a fight A later rumor says that a general engagement again took place this morning the 14th at daylight on the old Bull Run battle ground

Meade had fallen back to the neighborhood of Manassas Plains Lee's whole army has crossed the Rappahannock, and yesterday was pressing his rear

WASHINGTON, Oct 14 —We have dates from Charleston to the 8th. To day has been a severe one at Wagner, more than any since our occupation of the fort. The firing was mostly from James Island We had three killed and twelve wounded

The Star, extra, says a considerable engagement took place yesterday between a large force of rebels and part of Warren's corps in vicinity of Bristow Station. Infantry and cavalry were engaged on both sides The result was a decided Union victory The rebels were badly beaten with the loss of one entire battery and 100 prisoners.

Oct 10 —The rebel Fort Johnson again silenced A skillfully aimed shot entered the embrasure yesterday

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15.—A new trial in the Chapman case denied.

BURGLARS ABOUT —Recent events justify the conclusion that we have in our midst a band of systematic and daring burglars, who have probably been attracted hither by the opportunities for pilfering so often presented in a rendezvous for returning miners, like Portland Their operations are not confined to this city, however, but extend already as far as Oregon City and Vancouver At the latter place, on Monday night, we are told, they entered the room of Mr Kyler, abstracted from a trunk therein the sum of three hundred dollars, with which they decamped. We also learn that about the same time the apartments of Capt Pease, at Oregon City, were entered, and a quantity of Masonic jewelry, the value of which we could not ascertain, was stolen therefrom. Could they consistently desire to become impressed with the moral significance of the emblems with which they have unlawfully "invested" themselves, they might be transformed into honest men, but there is no probability of such a consummation We would therefore warn the community of this immigration of summer "road agents," that they may watch on the inside while the police watch without and thus and thereby foil by the prevention of crime.

MORE GOLD DISCOVERIES — A gentleman who arrived last evening from the John Day mines informs us of the recent discovery of a new placer contiguous to the old diggings. He exhibited some fine specimens of gold just taken out

A BRIGHT PROSPECT —The Common Council having advertised for proposals for lighting the streets, there is at least a prospect of our citizens in other parts of the city enjoying as luminous a pathway of an evening as those whose business or pleasure takes them along past the gas fitting establishment of Mr. C H Myers, 46 Front street.

Jocularities About.—Recent events justify the conclusion that we have in our midst a band of systematic and daring burglars, who have probably been attracted hither by the facilities for pilfering so often presented with regard to our returning miners, like flies around a honey pot. Their operations are not confined to this city, however, but extend already as far as Oregon City and Vancouver. At the latter place, on Monday night, we are told, they entered the room of Mr. Kyler, abstracted a trunk therein the sum of three hundred dollars, with which they decamped. We also learn that about the same time the premises of Capt. Pease, at Oregon City, were entered, and a quantity of Masonic jewelry, the value of which we could not ascertain, was stolen therefrom. Could they contrive to become impressed with the moral significance of the emblems with which they have so unlawfully "invested" themselves, they might be transformed into honest men; but there is no probability of such a consummation. We would therefore warn the community of this immigration of summer "road-agents," that they may watch on the inside while the police watch without, and thus aid materially by the prevention of crime.

New Gold Discoveries. — A gentleman arrived last evening from the John Day mines informs us of the recent discovery of a new placer contiguous to the old diggings. He exhibited some fine specimens of gold just obtained.

A Secure Prospect.—The Common Council having advertised for proposals for lighting the streets, there is at least a prospect of our citizens in other parts of the city enjoying as [illegible] pathway of an evening as those whose business or pleasure takes them along the gas-fitting establishment of Mr. C. H. Ayer, 46 Front street.

Sweet Cider.—A keg of excellent cider was rolled into our composition room, yesterday, by Mr. John Powell, which he contrived to squeeze out of some of the fruit grown on the farm. The compositors were rolling the cider into their throats when one of them nearly escaped choking upon the exclamation from Bob, of "Bully for Powell!" The boys were considerably worked up by the incident.

Bilious Fever cured.
Portsmouth, Ohio, April 1, 1859.
MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.—I have been, for years, subject to attacks of BILIOUS FEVER; and sometimes I have been laid up for months, and my system left in a feeble state by the use of strong medicine, which was given to me by my physician.
I have been using Dr. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS for some time. I find that I can break those attacks in a day or so, and escape entirely the fever. My daughter had an attack of DYSPEPSIA, which distressed her much, she could not eat scarcely anything without becoming nauseated at her stomach continually. Some time since she got and has been using DR. MOTT'S LIVER PILLS, and she now is like another being. I have found also that they are the most valuable Pills for breaking up Colds, Headache, Pains in the Side and Back. I would not be without them in my family.

☞ In Every Age of the World, the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to the legal profession that we look for reforms in jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to innovate upon received opinions and established usage. Hence the opposition which medical men to-day exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system is acknowledged by all. Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a regular and scientific run of disease? Try the Cholagogue, and the object is accomplished. Then tell your suffering neighbor what it has done for you, that it may do the same for him.

Diarrhœa and Pain in the Bowels Cured.
CARTHAGE, O., Nov. 25, 1853.
DR. O. B. BATH—Much Esteemed Friend: I have had a severe attack of Diarrhœa, attended with griping pains, and was reduced very low. I tried many different medicines, but all to no purpose, until I got a bottle of your PAIN PANACEA, and commenced its use. The first dose put a quietus on the griping pains, and I had not used two twenty-five cent bottles before I was entirely cured. I also recommended it to a friend, who was attacked with cramp colic, and suffering with excruciating pains, and three doses entirely cured him.

A "Radical" Speech from Kansas.—According to the Leavenworth Conservative, Col. Jennison delivered at Paola, Kansas, on the 8th September, the following speech:

I am here to-night to speak to soldiers and men capable of making soldiers. I am after men who want to be soldiers in the Army of the Lord—or any other army. I'll take off this coat of mine right here, because it belongs to a man over in Missouri. And I will say further that the man who owned that coat will never put it on any claim for it. This county has done its full duty in this war. You will find the true men of Kansas buried on every battle-field, and you will never find that a single one has disgraced himself or the State. If a private soldier has retreated it has been because his officers were cowards. I challenge any State to produce a record as glorious and gallant as that of Kansas. I am ashamed to ask this county to send forth a single other man. But we must fight again or leave our homes exposed to the enemies of Kansas and of freedom. We will not sacrifice our homes or our principles.

I tell you it is a shame and a disgrace for us to allow a man even to think of treason on the soil of Kansas. If you have such men among you, hang them for thinking it. I am here to ask Abe Lincoln to remove from power every General who is not an unconditional and radical Union man. I pray that he will never hereafter appoint any conservative man. And if he does, I pray to God that he will strike them dead. That's my constitutional prayer. I am a conservative man to-night, but if I ever get a show at these rebels again I will make up for it. The men of Kansas enlist from principle and not from policy. Our people, old and young, must be in the service or they will not be protected. Your present border army is powerless to exterminate the guerrillas. I can take five hundred men and set it at defiance. The people of Kansas are at the mercy of this conservative policy. Abe Lincoln has been deceived and misguided by Old Gamble and his pimps. That's where Old Abe and I differ. If he had taken my proclamation, this war would have been ended two years ago.

Do you suppose I will march into Missouri and ask them to take the oath? No—not by a damned sight. If they have protection papers, I will hang them, for real Union men need no written proof of their loyalty. In my next proclamation I will say to every physically able man in the State of Missouri: "You must fight for your homes or you will be put to death." And the head of the column will make the road so clear that no Copperhead shall ever see the tail end of the command. We will bury the Dred Scott decision bottom side up, and tell them that Copperheads have no rights which loyal men are bound to respect. I put the negro on top and the traitor underneath. Every disloyalist, from a Shanghai chicken to a Durham cow, must be cleaned out. Adopt this policy and there will be no more Copperheads in Kansas.

You did not fear any invasion from Missouri when Jennison's regiment was on the border. The officers of that regiment were not closeted up in parlors or sleeping on beds of down when Quantrell and Hayes were on their trail. They were in the saddle, killing traitors, and thus guarding your homes and mine. I don't denounce any General or any officer, but somebody is responsible for the blood of these innocent children, murdered through their neglect. The motto of my regiment shall be "Death to traitors and freedom to all men." I will never cease to exterminate rebels until the people of Kansas cry, "Hold, enough!" I say to the colored men, go fight for your country. Fight for yourselves and we will fight for you. If you will not fight for your freedom you cannot ask loyal soldiers to fight for you. To white men I say, enlist in some regiment, but enlist. The 14th is as gallant a regiment as ever was raised, and you will not hurt my feelings by joining it. But enlist somewhere, and thus protect your homes. The 15th will be filled within three weeks from to-day. Its whole duty will be to kill rebels.

A Voice—Have you got the horses?

Jennison—I never had any trouble in the old 7th in getting all the horses I wanted. All the trouble I ever had was in preventing the boys (and particularly old Pardee, over there) from leading off six or seven. But my men must not take anything that will not further the interests of his own regiment. Every man must, of course, be his own judge. This regiment will march with the revolver in one hand and the torch in the other. It will be organized on a military and patriotic, and not a political basis. We carry the flag, kill with the sabre, and hang with the gallows.

Mr. Lincoln on the Drama.—The President has recently written the following letter to Hackett, the actor which expresses itself:

Executive Mansion,
Washington, Aug. 17 1863.

My Dear Sir: Months ago I should have acknowledged the receipt of your book and accompanying kind note, and I now have to beg pardon for not having done so.

For one of my age I have seen very little of the drama. The first presentation of Falstaff I ever saw was yours here last spring. Perhaps the best compliment I can pay is to say, as I truly can, I am very anxious to see it again. Some of Shakspeare's plays I have never read, whilst others I have gone over perhaps as frequently as any professional reader. Among the latter are "Lear," "Richard Third," "Henry Eighth," "Hamlet," and especially "Macbeth." I think none equals "Macbeth." It is wonderful. Unlike you gentlemen of the profession, I think the soliloquy in Hamlet commencing, "O, my offense is rank," surpasses that commencing, "To be or not to be." But pardon this small attempt at criticism. I should like to hear you pronounce the opening speech of "Richard the Third."

Will you not soon visit Washington again? If you do, please call, and let me make your personal acquaintance. Yours, truly,

A. Lincoln.

Our Account with the Rebellion.—Open a map of the United States, and mark how many States and Territories the rebels occupied at the full bloom of the rebellion, and mark how many they occupy now. The account stands as follow:

What they had in 1861.	What they have in 1863.
Maryland,	Half of Virginia
Virginia,	" N. Carolina,
North Carolina,	South Carolina, (for
South Carolina,	a few weeks longer.)
Georgia,	Georgia,
Alabama,	Alabama,
Florida,	Part of Texas,
Mississippi,	And all the Copper-
Louisiana,	heads.
Kentucky,
Tennessee,
Arkansas,
Missouri,
Texas,
Indian Territory,
New Mexico,
Arizona.

After balancing the books, such is the account shown!—N. Y. Independent.

Reverdy Johnson.—Considerable curiosity is manifested to know the opinion of this great statesman on the constitutionality of the Emancipation Proclamation. He came very near the point in his speech before the Saratoga County (N. Y.) Agricultural Society, September 4th, in which the correspondent of the Atlas thus reports him:

His address was brief, and largely devoted to national affairs. It was pervaded by a spirit of intense devotion to the Union, and enjoined the duty of sustaining the Government in the struggle with the rebellion. Without expressing an opinion as to the validity of the Emancipation Proclamation, he said that if, in the exercise of any constitutional war power, slaves should become free, they cannot be re-enslaved; and if not, then the whole question would rest with the people of those States when they resumed their places in the Union. Slavery was an evil fruit, full of national difficulties, and would eventually fall in the contest with free principles.

A New Rebel Hope for Charleston.—The Richmond Examiner having given up the hopes of relief at Charleston from yellow fever, tropical heat and burning spads, now builds hopes on a new element:

The near approach of the equinoctial gales, which should occur in a few days, promises relief to our noble Southern sister—Charleston. They may bring the Yankee monitors to grief; for it is not improbable the sea will be so high inside the bar that they will perish. A little longer and the day may break over Charleston relieved, and resplendent with the glories of a successful defense. If the Ironsides and monitors cannot find shelter under Morris Island, a very short while may enable Beauregard to recover all the ground lost by the occupation of the island.

They will cure the above diseases in nine cases out of ten, by the use of a few bottles, and restore the patient to a healthy state of the system.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and unparalleled success of Hoofland's German Bitters, (purely a vegetable preparation,) and the numerous attempts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous druggists to palm upon the public articles of inferior quality, and recommend them as "just as good," or "the same as Hoofland's German Bitters," I have been induced to offer to the afflicted and the public generally, a remedy that will not disappoint them, but will restore them to health, if such a thing be possible, by the use of a few bottles. I do not make this preparation a beverage, to be used as a dram, to create an appetite, or to stimulate the system for a short time, and then leave it in a worse condition than before, but I offer it as a last resort, after all other remedies have failed, and the patient has become discouraged because he is not cured by the use of one bottle of some of the many quack nostrums with which the country is flooded. I do not wish to extract your money from your pockets without rendering you an equivalent, but I am willing to refer to the certificates of those who have used the Bitters, and been restored to health and happiness, after all other remedies had failed. I am willing to refer to the most eminent

PHYSICIANS,
and
CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge:

Although not disposed to favor the use of Medicines in general, the ingredients of which the Medicine is composed, and their effects; I feel know of no sufficient reason why I may not testify to the benefit he believes he has received from any simple preparation, in the use of which there contributes to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, because I was prejudiced against them for the reason that I was under the impression that they were a secret nostrum. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the remedy, and for the encouragement to try them, when I was suffering from a severe and long continued debility. The use of two bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, followed by evident relief, and restoration to health, and renewed vigor of body and mind, which I had not enjoyed before, and had almost despaired of ever again realizing. I therefore, from a sense of duty I owe to suffering humanity, and gratitude to God for the blessing restored to me through the instrumentality of these Bitters, feel it a privilege, as well as a duty, to bear this testimony to the benefit of others.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of cheap whiskey or common rum, at less than 25 cents a gallon, the taste disguised by drugs or Quassia, and sold at a dollar a bottle. This class of Bitters has existed, and still exists, as long as the credulity can be imposed upon by the use of the drunkard. By their use many are led to the drunkard's grave, and ultimately under the influence of the appetite created by the use of such a beverage, the desire for Liquor is increased, until the result of it is all the horrors of a drunkard's life and death.
